

AGENCY BILL OF RIGHTS

AS AN EMERGENCY FEEDING PROGRAM THAT DISTRIBUTES FOOD, WE RESERVE THE RIGHT TO:

- 1. Determine a set geographic service area and only serve people residing in that area. We will provide a referral to a client's local emergency feeding program after we serve them the first time;
- 2. Require documentation to prove the number of people living in a household;
- 3. Require documentation to prove a household's address;
- 4. Limit how often we serve each client in order to ensure that all guests receive enough food;
- 5. Refuse service to anyone that is hostile, aggressive or threatening to staff, volunteers, or other clients; and
- 6. Serve income eligible volunteers as long as they register as clients and do not receive preferential treatment or more food than other clients.

If you have questions or concerns, please call the Regional Food Bank of Northeastern New York at 518-786-3691.